General Description
 This Township includes nearly all the agricultural land of Fine Valley and has about ten thousand acres of 1st class soil. The roads into the Valley are not very good and mostly used for pack animals. The Fine Valley is a high mountain valley with many creeks of clear water, warm climate, and in abundance in spring and fall. The timber along the valley consisting mostly of Spruce is scattered along the foot hills and of Spruce, Fir, and Pine. The timber along the creeks is mostly Hemlock, Alder, and Willow. The land in the valley produces best quality of wheat, oats, and vegetables.
